Limassol Town

Limassol is the second largest city of the island, with stretches of sandy beaches, beautiful traditional and modern buildings as well as world-class hotels. It is also known for its lively Carnival celebrations, the annual Wine Festival as well its location: developed on a cosmopolitan seafront and surrounded by two ancient city-kingdoms: 'Amathus' to the east and 'Kourion' to the west, making it a popular tourist attraction.

The journey will begin from Paphos. The first stop on the way to Limassol will be the Kolossi Medieval Castle; a fine example of military architecture. Continuing the journey further back to history, we will visit the Kourion Greco-Roman theatre which has been completely restored and is nowadays used for musical and theatrical performances and is set in a unique location.

Next, follows a visit to the Sanctuary of God Apollon Ylatis, the god of the woodland and protector of the kingdom Kourion. Driving through the acres of lemon tree orchards of Fasouri, we will reach the old town centre of Limassol. We will continue our trip by visiting the Castle of Limassol, near the old port, nowadays built amongst a beautifully restored neighborhood comprising of restaurants, a microbrewery and a carob mill. Walking through the graphic pathways of the old city, which has been recently renovated, we will come across the old port of Limassol.
