7th International Conference on Higher Education Marketing, 28-30 March, 2012, Nicosia, Cyprus

Dear Mr. Stratis

This is to thank you and the members of EasyConferences for the organization of the 7th International Conference on Higher Education Marketing. The conference involved many challenges as it was organized in a very short period of time and involved many participants from different countries and regions.

As the organizers, EasyConferences had the main responsibility for all tasks linked to the organization of the conference. These included the design of a website, the correspondence with participants, and the organization of the programme and related events.

I am extremely satisfied with the quality of the services provided by EasyConferences. They were professional and extremely helpful, making themselves available at every stage of the conference organization. I plan to use them in future events and would highly recommend them to other academics interested in organizing a conference in Cyprus.
